Supt. Quade is honored

Homecoming was highlighted by the honoring of Supt. G. W. "Bud" Quade during halftime of the Cougar-Sundevil game. Quade was the superintendent of the Escondido Union High School District for 23 years.

Presentation of the royalty and the senior float was done between the junior varsity and varsity games. The alumni cheerleaders joined the current cheerleaders in hopes of firing up the Cougars enough to beat the Sundevils. Their hopes were denied as the Homecoming crowd saw the Sundevils come out victorious by beating the Cougars, 10-7.

The Homecoming royalty included Johnny Montoya, king; Adel Estes, queen; Dan Polancic, senior prince; Elaine Judd, senior princess; Robby Gilster, junior prince; Andrea Rodriguez, junior princess; Dave Ruscetta, sophomore prince; Sherry Favor, sophomore princess; Alfrado Ruelas, freshman prince; and June Kostick, freshman princess.

Cruising past the Homecoming crowd, Dave Ruscetta and Sherry Favor are acknowledged as the Sophomore Prince and Princess.

Pep rallies show spirit

Spirit got off to a fast start as the Cougars opened their season by beating San Dieguito, Oceanside and San Marcos.

Students showed their spirit by participating in class yells and class competition like a spoon race, tug of war and pie-eating contest. Cheerleaders helped student spirit by leading the crowd in class yells, doing cheers and producing skits.

Cheerleaders earn new uniforms

Because cheerleaders must purchase their own uniforms, which is different from school athletics where the uniforms are provided, cheerleaders had to come up with fund raising projects.

Both varsity and JV cheerleaders produced projects such as bake sales, car washes and bikeathons.

Between classes time to socialize

As the bell rings to end class, students left their classes to socialize with their friends and enjoy a few moments of rest between classes. Other students, however, spent their time walking from one end of the campus to the other.

Teachers, on the other hand, spent their time changing rooms and getting prepared for their next group of kids.

Students scramble for transportation

After the final bell has rung, one can witness a mad scramble towards his or her own means of transportation.

Some students are able to sit around and talk to friends for almost a half an hour while waiting for their bus. The less fortunate students pile into lines trying to be the first one on the bus.

Others sit in their cars and fight the other car trying to get out of the parking lot. The bicyclists and mopeds risk their lives while competing against the cars and buses in order to get home.

Students stop to socialize before leaving to go home.

To entertain the rest of the students during lunch, EHS had such entertainment as the Navy Band, a mime and the KGB chicken.

Remember

The years have come and the years have gone.
Our lives have smiled and time goes on.
Now my days are spent in memories cast;
I seek in my mind the times that have passed.
I think of the places that I used to go,
I think of the friends that I used to know.
We laughed and joked and spent our time
In happiness and harmony just living in rhyme.
Life was easy and our choices were clear,
In our own little world we had little to fear.
And through all years we felt satisfied,
But all things must pass with the changing tide.
The years have come and the years have gone,
Our lives have smiled and time goes on.
And I love to think of the good times when
Our paths of life will cross again.

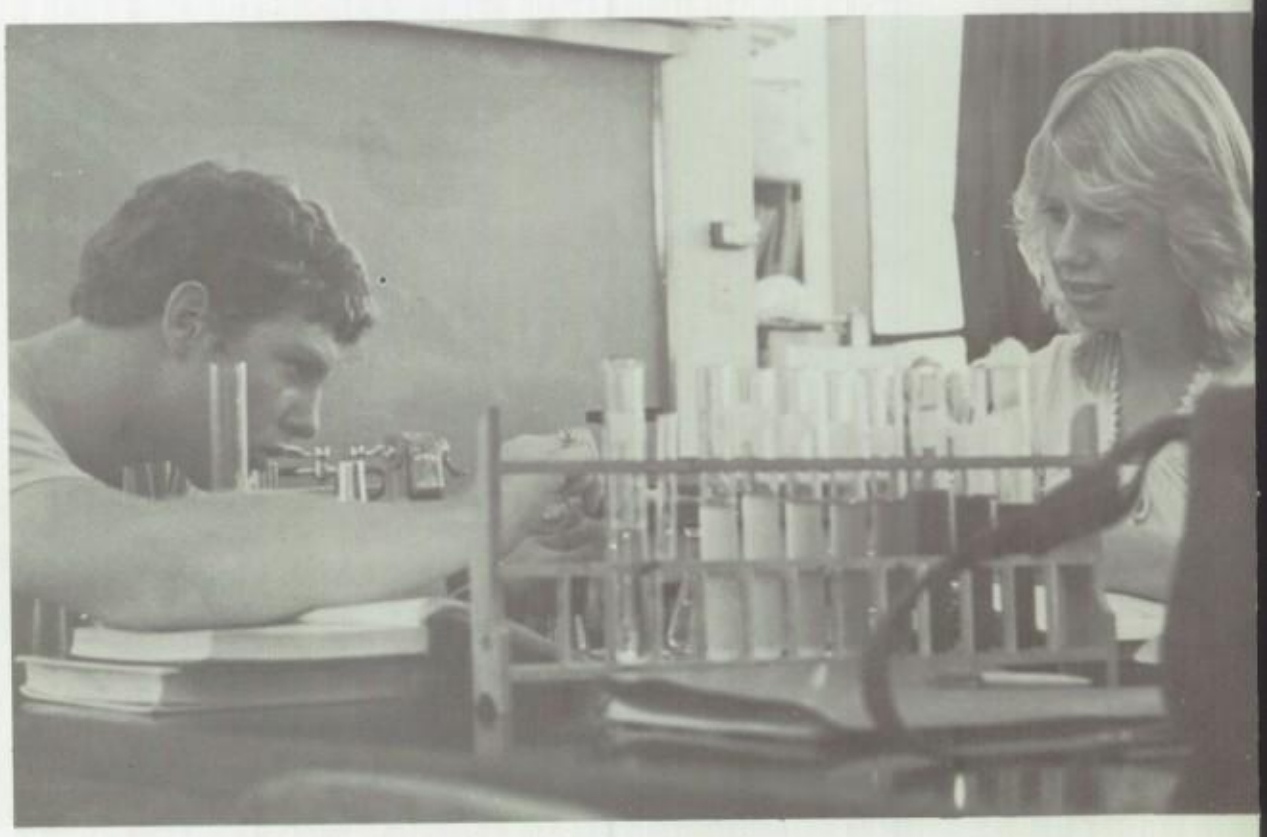
Microbiology, chemistry added

New subjects this year included microbiology and honors chemistry.

Dale Cornelius brought microbiology to EHS making it the first class of its kind in the district.

Microbiology students studied micro-organisms and their relation to disease, food production and their use in modern medicine. Working out of a junior college text, students were able to grow and identify their own bacteria.

Honors chemistry was an extension of chemistry, designed for Mentally Gifted Minors. Jim Dodin went in depth on molecular structure, atomic theory and quantum theory.



Dave Hundley and Phyllis Hart work on chemistry experiment.

Civics was one of the few classes that the seniors were required to take this year. A few students studied for the college level placement examination for college credit. A total of four college units could be transfered from high school by taking the test.

The 1977 juniors took history as a required course. Mike Moreno's class had a special unit on California, San Diego and Escondido history. A field trip on bikes highlighted Escondido's historical points.

The third year students took drafting, wood, metal, electronics and auto and seniors had the option of taking auto, electronics, drafting, wood and metal.

The drafting classes were taught by Norman Quon and Jesse Sanchez. They both had nine classes of drafting.

Drama cancels musical

For the first time in nine years the Escondido High School Drama Department will not be producing a musical.

"There just aren't enough funds," said Al Krasic, director. The past musicals included Camelot, West Side Story, Yankee Doodle Dandy, The King and I and others.

However, drama classes did produce plays such as Flowers for Algernon, On Borrowed Tíme, Mr. Roberts and The Children's Hour. The plays were performed in the cafeteria and in elementary schools in the district area.

Quade Named Acting Superintendent; Radney Principal for EUHS

Guilford W. (Bud) Quade was named acting superintendent of the EUHS district and William P. (Bill) Radney was named high school principal at an executive session of the trustees' board meeting at Valley Campus Wednesday night. The appointments, it was explained later by Board Chairman Bob Hird, will provide for a better definition of their duties

Quade fits our comments above. He is an outstanding administrator in our book. He will be missed. We know that we will miss him.

Quade has been in the district 30 years, 22 of them as superintendent. He has survived in a post in the same district for a longer period of time than could be expected, as school superintendents are subject to the whims of changing boards of trustees.

We imagine that one of the reasons that Bud wanted to stay in Escondido (many school superintendents choose to move on periodically for more money, a bigger district, or incompatibility with the staff or trustees) is because the district and the job had become a part of him. He said as much when he told trustees in his written

After 23 years

Quade retires as superintendent

Supt. G. W. "Bud" Quade announced his retirement at the close of the school year. Quade came to the district in 1947, starting as a business education instructor and coach until 1952 when he went into administration, first as an assistant principal, then as principal of Escondido High School.

He became superintendent in 1955. His early tenure as superintendent included problems of crowded conditions due to lack of buildings and increasing enrollment. As a result of successful bond elections he was able to add buildings at EHS and build schools at Poway and San Marcos. Both these schools left the district later in unification elections.

Other schools added were Orange Glen, Valley and San Pasqual.

Quade's final year in the district was highlighted by the approval of a financial election to complete San Pasqual High School over the next five years and an extensive construction program approved by the federal government for funding some of the buildings there including the gymnasium. Also accomplished during the year were the approval of three-year agreements with both certificated and classified employees in an atmosphere of cooperation and understanding.

For the first time, a student became a member of the board of trustees. Mark Shoemaker, a senior at San Pasqual High School, was selected to serve as a non-voting member for the entire school year. The six-member board met usually about twice a month to formulate policies and direct the affairs of the district. One of their major projects this year was the selection of a new superintendent. Following an extensive screening process of applicants from throughout the state, the board made its selection in the spring. By press time the name of the new superintendent was not known. Watch for a biography on the new leader in the 1979 Gong.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES: William J. Ulman, president; Charlotte S. Hotchkiss, vice president; Wilbur F. Bradley, Jr., clerk; Robert D. Sikes, member; Stanley C. Peters, member; Mark Shoemaker, non-voting student member. (The members' terms were from April 1, 1977 to March 32, 1978. Shoemaker's term was from July 1, 1977 to June 30, 1978).

Mike Dietz, who has been at Escondido for 13 years, enjoyed counseling with students. His favorite saying was, "Get your rear in gear!" Dietz's extra time was spent with his wife and 2½-year-old daughter, Laura.

Dietz and the other staff members made great efforts to benefit all students, teachers and parents.

He also remarked that students now are not as academically goal minded since a skilled person can make as much or more money than a college graduate can.

Chick Embrey's final season

Coach Chick Embrey's 22nd and final season ended with a four-win and five-loss record which placed the Cougars in fourth place in the Avocado East. The Cougar's four wins were against San Dieguito, Oceanside, San Marcos and Ramona. Their five losses were to Mt. Carmel, Poway, Carlsbad, San Pasqual and Orange Glen.

The highlight of the season came on the night of September 16 at Oceanside High, where the No. 13 ranked Cougars defeated the No. 6 rated Pirates, 7-6. It was a highly explosive game with both teams having excellent offensive and defensive nights. The Cougars scored midway through the second quarter on a 23 dive from three yards out.

Jon Franco kicked the extra point through the middle of the uprights giving the Cougars a 7-0 halftime lead. Escondido went into the locker room with high-flying spirits, beating their hands and helmets on the lockers and chanting, "Fire-up, big team, fire-up."

time to kick off to the Pirates, who mounted a five-play scoring drive to open the second half. Oceanside's conversion kick sailed wide to the left, leaving the score 7-6 in favor of Escondido. Both teams exchanged possession of the ball throughout the third and fourth quarters. With 7:36 left in the game, the Cougar's offense started a drive which lasted seven minutes and 23 seconds, leaving the Pirates only 13 seconds to mount a scoring drive. Their effort was to no avail as the Escondido defense shut them off completely.

The 1977 Cougar's varsity girls' tennis team finished the season in fourth place ahead of a highly ranked San Pasqual team. Their record was five wins and seven losses with their biggest win coming over San Pasqual in the first round. They also had an outstanding match against Poway in the second round where they lost to the Titans 10-6. Their wins were against San Pasqual once, San Marcos and Ramona twice each. Their losses were to Poway, Mt. Carmel, Orange Glen twice each, and one loss to San Pasqual.

The Captain and Most Valuable singles player was Pam Cordry who was also the team representative along with Colleen Prince in the singles division of the Avocado League playoffs. Claire Puig and Lori Brown were most valuable doubles players and were both representatives in the doubles divisions of the Avocado League Playoffs. Also representing the Cougars in league doubles were Cathy Willis and Sue Alvarez.

In the Avocado League playoffs, Colleen Prince went down in defeat after two close losses in the singles division, while Pam Cordry won in her consolation match before losing to a seeded player in the second round. In the doubles division, Claire Puig and Lori Brown also lost a very close match to the No. 1 San Pasqual team. Cathy Willis and Sue Alvarez went the furthest of any Escondido representatives. They won two matches in the consolation before losing to an outstanding San Pasqual doubles team.

Under the coaching of Stone the Cougars had a disappointing 1 and 7 season record, but with this record the Cougars had two players named second team all Avocado East. They were Dan Good and Paul Polelro.

The team's leading scorer was Polero who was also named their Most Valuable Player with 65 points. The team's second leading scorer was Captain Good with 38 points.

Steinbeck named team captain

Escondido's JV waterpolo team had four wins and four losses for the 1977 season. The Cougars were coached by Gary Sadnick and inspired by Captain Mark Steinbeck.

The Cougars were led by leading scorer Mark Sams, who was also a part-time varsity member, with a total of 33 points. The second leading scorer was Victor Longoria with 31 points. The 1977 Most Valuable Player was Steve Long.

Jarvis looms, Hodges overflows, new superintendent named

By presstime the outcome of the June 6 election was unknown. Proposition 13, known as the Jarvis-Gann tax initiative, if passed, was to reduce the income to the district (and other taxing agencies). Estimated reduction for the district was 42 per cent or $4.5 million.

In anticipation of the possible passage of the proposition, the Escondido Union High School District issued a resolution February 27 indicating steps to be taken if the issue passed and if the funds were not replaced by the California Legislature.

Possible cuts included reducing student class load from six periods to five, reducing the instructional supplies budget, eliminating San Pasqual High School building program, cutting student health services, cutting summer school and adult school, eliminating all transportation services, eliminating all interscholastic athletics and other extra-curricular activities, reducing fringe benefits and wages of employees.

Notices of possible lay-off were sent to 13 probationary teachers at EHS but these notices were later cancelled by the trustees. Trustees said that a state of emergency would be declared on June 7 if the issue passed.

Great interest in the outcome of the issue was generated by students and some meetings by students were held. (See photo below).

Gay Street, left, led a group of interested students during lunch hours on the implication of the Jarvis-Gann issue.

A new superintendent replacing retiring superintendent G. W. Quade (see pages 62-63) was appointed by the board March 17.

He was Dr. Forest M. Fouts, superintendent of the South Pasadena Unified School District. Fouts started his teaching career in 1947 in Kansas and was in administrative work in South Pasadena since 1953. He became superintendent in that district in 1967.

The beginning date of Fouts' leadership here was set as July 1, 1978.

An extended drought ended this year when almost 20 inches of rain doused the Escondido area in the fall and winter months. Lake Hodges Dam, shown here, overflowed for the first time in 26 years.

Senior float highlights Homecoming festivities

The Homecoming festivities were highlighted by a float built by the Senior Class. The float was a big football helmet with a Cougar face on the side and the 1978 flag on the top. Adele Estes and John Montoya, Homecoming queen and king, rode on the float.

The Senior Class also participated on all the dress-up days and in the numerous class competitions.

Cordry, Stanley go to Sacramento

Pam Cordry and Ted Stanley were Escondido High School's representatives to Girls' and Boys' State respectively. It was held at Sacramento State College. The convention was a mock political structure of the United States. This convention was sponsored by the American Legion. At the convention Cordry was a page in the senate. Stanley was on the board of supervisors.

Lunch drew many freshmen to the greentop for activities like tug of war, class competition, races, bands and other school related projects. Also available was processed food from the venders that included items from burritos to hamburgers, from milk to Jello, and from candy to ice cream.

4 qualify for nationals

At the annual DECA state conference this year, four EHS students won second places in competition. Peter Pollero won second for auto and petroleum; Mary Di Gioranni, second in food marketing; Liz Cruz, second for food services; and Jody Marlette, second for finances and credit.

This made the club among the top in the state. The four students qualified to compete in the nation convention in Washington in May. During their trip to Washington, D. C., they traveled to many historical sights.

The Deutscher Klub was a student-oriented, social club, mainly originated for the furtherment of German culture. Adviser Jarmilia Sokol was instrumental in organizing this club and getting it off the ground.

The main event was a night at Disneyland in December. Other activities included a German Pastry Party, several car washes and a monthly trip to Little Bavaria.

Club officers were Tim Shell, president; Lynne Matheny, vice president; Shoshana Zatz, treasurer and Laurie Avenell and Holly Bender, co-secretaries.

SO FAR, SO GOOD!

Dear Class of '78:

At this point you are supposed to have graduated from high school.

√ You have.

You are supposed to have found avenues for self-expression: academic achievement, group activities, sports, hobbies.

√ You have.

You are supposed to have developed a sense of responsibility, a degree of self-reliance.

√ You have.

So far, so good. You are right on schedule. But don't call it an education!

It isn't.

Learning takes a lifetime—but congratulations on having completed the first step. So far, so good—and may your way ahead be one of continued accomplishment and deep satisfaction.

SENIORS OFFERED CONGRATULATIONS

his service will be offered next year also. If you want to send a message to next year's eniors, watch for the announcement out around January, 1979. If you don't get an nnouncement, contact the yearbook class at 745-1051, extension 10 during the month of January.

We, the Gong staff, add our congratulations to all graduates!

After 22 years of football coaching, Robert "Chick" Embrey retired as the winningest coach in San Diego County. His record stands at 143-67-4. Coach Embrey managed to capture three San Diego CIF championships and also inspired many league championship teams.

So long, coach, and may helicopters always land at 7 p.m. on Thursday nights.

A THANK YOU

The Gong is a combination of many people's efforts.

First, I would like to thank the photography department and instructor Gary Sadnick for putting up with lost pictures, three-time photo orders, and late photo orders. I also appreciate the patience of Dick Kerr, the Taylor Publishing Co. representative and his help with establishing later deadlines. Carl Swadell also deserves a thank you for his work in the graphic arts department.

I would also like to thank the staff for working on The Gong and making it a complete book. The professional photographers in town donated many services, free of charge. They were Juanita Daly, Bob Darby, Craig Fischel, Bill Cheney and Ernie Cowan. I especially want to thank Ernie for providing the cover photo and the Homecoming pictures.

Last, but not least, Wallace F. Gray for your teaching, confidence and endless patience lasting four years for me. Without you this book would never be.

Have a good summer
Don't get to screwed up this summer. Talk to you next year
Mike Ellen

When we leave these rooms and halls again
We'll try to do the best we can.
And as life progresses through its many stages
Try to remember the theme of these pages!

To a guy who is cool to have around, hope to see you next year.
David Ramsey

Anthony,
Not a dead conan!
You're not a mediocre either. You're A-1! I hope we can all go to the beach one day soon.
See ya Very soon.
Love
Robert

Martin,
To a good friend & a great football player. Stay with it. Keep on truckin' or whatever
Stay Cool
Have a fun summer
Raymond

Martin, thank you for rolling my shot & discus back to me when I threw it in a way you helped me get it. I'm looking forward to C.I.F. & appreciate your help & encouragement. I'm looking forward to next year in track & the same fun that we had this year in the ring. Good luck in football, I know you'll be good. Have a great summer.
